On October 26, your vote can support co-op housing in Saskatchewan.

Questions to ask your local candidates

1. How will you commit to long-term rental assistance for low-income households?
2. How will you support more seniors aging in place?
3. How will you work with the non-profit and co-operative housing sector to increase the supply of affordable housing?

Take Action

- Make a plan to vote in person, or by mail
- Call, email or tweet your local candidates
- Help your neighbours vote, while following social distancing guidelines.
